

The longest river in the world is the Nile River, which is approximately 4,160 miles (6,670 kilometers) long

. It flows through 11 countries, including Egypt, Sudan, South Sudan, Burundi, Rwanda, Tanzania, Uganda, Democratic

Republic of the Congo, Kenya, Ethiopia